

PRAYING SCRIPTURE

PRAYER GUIDE

When we pray God's Word, we shift our focus from our problems to his promises. Instead of relying on our own strength or trying to figure everything out, we anchor our prayers in who God is and what he has already said is true.

God's Word reminds us that no situation we face is bigger than his power, wisdom, or care. Whatever you're walking through—uncertainty, fear, grief, or hope—Scripture gives us language to pray and truth to stand on. As we pray God's promises, we learn to trust him with the outcome and invite his power to work in our lives.

The Bible is one of the greatest gifts God has given us for building a strong, life-giving prayer life. In this guide, you'll use Scripture not just to read, but to pray—turning God's Word into an ongoing conversation with him.

In the following section, use the Scriptures to claim their promises through prayer.

ASSURANCE

The LORD is my Shepherd, I lack nothing. He makes me lie down in green pastures, he leads me beside quiet waters, he refreshes my soul. He guides me along the right paths for his name's sake. Even though I walk through the darkest valley, I will fear no evil, for you are with me; your rod and your staff, they comfort me. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies. You anoint my head with oil; my cup overflows. Surely your goodness and love will follow me all the days of my life, and I will dwell in the house of the LORD forever.

PSALM 23 (NIV)

ANXIETY

Do not be anxious about anything, but in every situation, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, present your requests to God. And the peace of God, which transcends all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

Therefore do not worry about tomorrow, for tomorrow will worry about itself. Each day has enough trouble of its own.
